Every town in Connecticut can boast cultural assets that contribute to a vibrant community and improve the quality of life for its residents.

What are some exciting arts and cultural events and organizations that you have experienced in your community?

live music- open air movies- high school theater

If elected, will you work to strengthen the arts and culture community in the town(s) you serve? If so, how? If not, why?

yes

Sandwiched between Boston and New York, Connecticut is often dismissed as a “pass through” state when it comes to tourism. Yet, our state has many world class arts institutions and a rich cultural landscape.

Why do you think arts and culture are important in Connecticut? What is unique about our state’s arts and culture?

my constituents and enjoy the arts, music, crafts, etc- we have several venues in Norwalk, Waterbury, Danbury, Hartford, Stamford that draw great interest from NY, and Mass

During the Covid-19 pandemic, many people discovered that arts and creativity play a critical role in helping us cope with emotional stress and sustain our mental health. Art helped us process loss, fight loneliness, stay connected and feel hopeful.

Can you share a way that the arts have helped you, your family or your community get through the difficult times of Covid? How will that experience influence choices about the arts you would make as a legislator?

We watched lots of movies and as soon as we were allowed, we went to the first show at the Ridgefield Playhouse to See Raul Malo of the Mavericks. As a legislator, I would support efforts to expand and improve our offerings of live events.

The arts and creativity have a proven track record of economic benefit to our state. The National Endowment for the Arts' Office of Research & Analysis and the Bureau of Economic Analysis report that, in 2020, arts and cultural production in Connecticut added $8.9 billion to our economy and accounted for 3.2 percent of our gross state product, while the arts and cultural industries employed 49,159 workers with wages and benefits totaling more than $5.1 billion. Despite these contributions, the arts have historically been first on the chopping block when it comes to budget priorities. What would you do to help keep arts and creativity funded in our state at a level that recognizes their economic importance?

I believe the arts should be funded at a comparable level to other similar initiatives.

Connecticut has not had an Arts Education Specialist at the State Department of Education (SDE) since 2016, when the last specialist left. This position is critical to assuring that our State and National Arts Education Standards are consistently implemented in all of Connecticut's school districts, especially those in under-resourced communities where students' access to the Arts is often extremely limited compared to affluent communities.

If elected, would you support refilling the Arts Education Specialist at SDE? If not, why?

"Underresourced" communities would have to be defined. For instance, Bridgeport has a major venue, as does Hartford and Waterbury. If certain area have high crime rates, attendance at events would be low do to safety issues. It is up to the individual town's leadership to show their area is a suitable location for events.
